

Indonesia after Elections: Prospects for Human Rights Reforms and Conflict Resolution?

A Joint Conference by the International Coalition for Papua, the Westpapua-Netzwerk, Human Rights Watch and Amnesty International

14. - 15.5.2019, Hotel NH Berlin Potsdam Conference Center
Zehlendorfer Damm 190, 14532 Kleinmachnow Berlin

Tuesday, 14 May

Morning 9:00 – 12:30

Human Rights in West Papua 2019

Norman Voß, ICP Secretariat

Race Islam and Power

Ethnic and Religious Violence in Post-Suharto Indonesia

Andreas Harsono, Human Rights Watch

Indonesia after Elections

Panel discussion with Indonesian human rights experts and German politicians

Lunch Break

Afternoon 14:00 – 18:30

Killing with Impunity in Papua

Papang Hidayat, Amnesty International
Indonesia

Human Rights Defenders and Media Freedom in Papua

Panel discussion with human rights defenders and journalists from Papua and Jakarta

Religious Conflict and Accessing Papua

Report from the World Council of Churches' visit to Indonesia of February 2019, WCC, UEM, GKI-TP

Between Rule of Law and Unfinished Reforms

Panel discussion with lawyers, legal experts and German politicians

Wednesday, 15 May

Morning 9:00 – 12:30

Review of Discussions and Opening

Peaceful Conflict Resolution in Indonesia

Panel discussion with political analysts and conflict experts

Minorities and Vulnerable Groups in Indonesia

Presentations from and discussion with human rights defenders

Registration:

Participation fee 35€ including coffee breaks, lunch and dinner on 14.5. For registration please visit:

<https://goo.gl/T6ZQ9f>

Accommodation:

If you need accommodation in the conference venue, you may book that directly with the hotel at reservierungen@nh-hotel.com or by calling +49 30 2238 0233. If you book a room before 31 March, you can get a rate of 99€ on a first come first served basis for single rooms with breakfast if you request that booking under the keyword "Indonesia".

If you need any assistance you may contact us at icp@humanrightspapua.org